

Basic life support & management of anaphylaxis (QA level 2 award)

A course offering an introduction to the treatment and management of anaphylaxis.

Overview

4 hour, maximum of 12 delegates per course

The qualification is designed for delegates to develop their knowledge and understanding necessary to manage a casualty suffering from anaphylaxis.

Outcome

Delegates will attain the knowledge and practical competencies needed to provide basic life support and management of anaphylaxis.

Who should attend?

Any individual with a specific interest or responsibility at work, at home or in voluntary and community activities, who may be required to manage anaphylaxis.

Content

Basic life support

- Chain of survival
- Incident and casualty assessment
- Cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and automated external defibrillators (AEDs)

Anaphylaxis

- Common triggers
- Signs and symptoms
- Life-threatening features
- Managing anaphylaxis
- Summoning appropriate support
- Casualty position
- Adrenaline auto-injectors

Hosted course - £499.00

You choose the date and provide the venue, usually your premises, and we provide the training and any necessary equipment.

For more information and bookings:

email: training@posturite.co.uk

or call: 0345 345 0010

posturite.co.uk